

Sinclair
Broadcasting's
decision to force
their stations to
air an anti-Kerry
documentary days
before the election
is a clear example
of the dangers of
media consolidation.
This is too
one-sided to be good
for the public interest. If they are allowed to show
"Lost Honor" they should also have to show "Fahrenheit 911"
and/or "Going Upriver". This is a slandorous misuse of public airways.

Sinclair uses the
public airwaves free
of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. But when large companies
control the
airwaves, we get more of what's good
for the bottom line
and less of what we need for our democracy. Instead of something
produced at "News
Central" far away,
it's more important
that we see real people from our own
communities and more
substantive news
about issues that matter.

Sinclair's actions
show why we need to strengthen media
ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license
renewal process
needs to involve
much more than a
returned postcard.
Please take the
appropriate action
to restrict this.
Thank you.
